THE OBESS PLAYERS.—Three games of chess are now being contested by brain members of the Germantown and Dayton Chess Clubs.
These contests have been in progress about a month, and are not yet completed. We learn, however, that two of the games are nearly brought to an end, and that the indication is pretty nearly conclusive that Dayton will win them. The third is in doubt.

An old gentleman named Hallowell was killed while digging a well in the neighborhood of Lebanon, on Tuesday. The earth caved in upon him and buried him. He was entirely dead when taken out, and it is believed that he was killed when the earth struck him. He had a wife and three children.

MILK SICKNESS.—The citizens of Cincinnati are in a state of excitement just now about the quality of the milk furnished them by some of the dairymen. A committee was appointed by Mayor Bishop to investigate charges against Barney Van Lear for selling impure milk, from his farm near Ludlow Kentucky. The report of the committee, made yesterday, states that the milk was obtained from diseased cows and not fit to be used. All who read the report will be troubled with "milk sickness" for some time to come.

On Sunday last a house occupied by Levi Boogher, in Wayne township, was entered by burglars. They found no valuables, however, but levied on a lot of pies and a bottle of whiskey which they came across in their search, leaving the house in dire confusion.
They then went to the house occupied by a widow Grimes, on the farm of Moses Shearer, and after a thorough search found $1, belonging to a little boy, which they took. On their way from thence they found a horse and buggy standing in front of a dwelling house on the road leading from Brant to New Carlisle, which they took possession of and drove off, and have not been heard of since.

The Cincinnati Penny Press having been in Longworth's quarry, southwest of the city, is now endeavoring to catch our Carrier, and chuck him into the filthy place. Spelman is pretty quick on foot and we don't think it is within the scope of "Caloric's" ability to accomplish it. The "Press," we learn, circulates thickly in the vicinity of Longworth's swamp, and is the text book of the "abstinent of the Love".
The paper has had a variety of carriers, we are told, since it was first hawked by our streets.
Two of them got up routes, and ascertaining that the thing would not pay, quit. Since then three more took hold of the affair, and threw it up before they had carried it a week. We learn that another has signified his intention of giving the institution a circulation here, and the man who has charge of it now says, "that if he fails he will write to 'Caloric' not to send the package any more." It will be inferred from the above that the circulation of artificial light in this region has been attended with difficulties, and the present aspect of affairs for its further spread is any thing but satisfactory.

A young lady in Cincinnati, celebrated for her beauty and personal charms, met with a serious accident on Tuesday night, in this wise.—She has been for some time past in the habit, when retiring, of bathing herself with a mixture of camphor and salt, to preserve her complexion and render the skin clear and smooth. During this process on Tuesday night last, the camphor took fire from a lamp burning on her toilet table, and blistered her neck, shoulders and bosom in a shocking manner.
Her eyes were also so badly burnt that it is feared she will lose one of them at least. Her beauty and attractiveness, however, have "departed" forever.

Next week will close the season at the White Sulphur Springs. Those who intend to visit that delightful watering place, should lose no time in doing so. A series of parties will come off on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week.

A little girl five years old, fell from a three story window in Cincinnati, yesterday morning. She fell directly on the back of a dog that happened to be standing upon the sidewalk, and walked directly under the window and thus escaped certain death, with only a few bruises, while the dog was knocked senseless.

Importance of Union-Nomination of Gen. Cantwell.

The variety of interests to be decided, will render the next Legislature, in this State, the most important that has convened for many years, and it is highly necessary that the Democrats should lay aside internal feuds in counties where they exist, and act in concert. The loss of a single Senator or member of the House, may throw the power into the hands of the opposite party, a disaster which will be a death blow to our measures, and will ruin our projects in the State for some time to come. We are as strongly organized now as ever, and by proper management may secure a majority as majority as we possessed in the last Assembly.
Even if Hamilton County should come up Republican, the Democrats in other parts of the State by setting judiciously might secure the balance of power. At such a time it is unfortunate that a difficulty should have arisen in the Richland and Ashland districts, which threatens the defeat of Gen. Cantwell, who has just been nominated for State Senator. The General is a sterling Democrat, a man of unswerving integrity, and his course during the several terms he has served in the State Senate has been such, as none of his party can find fault with. If anything of a local nature has arisen, if there are any private objections to him, or if there is any who better deserves the nomination, we nevertheless hope, that our friends at Mansfield will do their utmost, to reconcile the difficulty, and will cause the private jealousies to be laid aside for the public good. To both the ticket and give the State into the hands of the Republicans for the sake of personal mischief or personal interest would be an exhibition of selfishness, which the Democrats of Richland and Ashland counties have never before manifested, and we cannot believe they meditate any such proceeding. Let them support Cantwell with the knowledge that he is a true Democrat, and that the interests of the party will be safe in his hands; and for yet their enemies with the expectation that their preferences will be yielded to in the future.

The Gazette at last convinced.

The Ohio Statesman has established the fact, that in 1844, Judge Gholson was a slaveholder, in Mississippi, and that he sold slaves. It might, just as easily, have proven, that Thomas Jefferson, George Washington, Andrew Jackson, and Henry Clay, were slaveholders. Are we to understand that the Statesman considers any man, who was once, or is now, a slaveholder, ineligible to office and unworthy of support?—[Gazette.]

It is not because Gholson was at one time a slaveholder, that the Democracy especially object to him, but it is because he has denied his antecedents, in a political trickster, is attempting to palm off a contemptible falsity upon the people of the state, its utter destitute of integrity and principles of justice and honor, and shown himself to be entirely unfit for the high judiciary office, to which he is aspiring, that we oppose him.
We are glad, however, that the Ohio Statesman has at last succeeded in convincing the Gazette, that Gholson did sell his slaves on the block, and that the latter has the courage to acknowledge after all his fuss and feathers over the institution, slavery, that it is ready to support a man for Supreme Judge, whom it concedes to be, a political demagogue and an actual trader in human flesh.

Hon. Wm. P. Ried.

We are pleased to learn that Wm. P.
Ried, Esq., has been re-nominated for State Senator in the Delaware and Licking district.
He was a prominent member and exerted a controlling influence in the last Legislature.
Although his district is largely Republican, he will carry it again triumphantly.

IN THE HANDS OF HIS FRIENDS.—The Republican Know Nothing Convention having refused to put the name of a certain gentleman of Irish descent on their ticket for Prosecuting Attorney, to the exceeding discomfiture of the Gas-ette, that sheet is now laboring with all its power to have him placed upon the Democratic ticket, and we are led to infer from the strong and earnest manner in which the Gazette (and Journal) are pressing his claims upon the Democracy, that they will give him their support, if nominated, in opposition to Mr. Read.
What says Mr. Read and his friends to this arrangement? Are they prepared for such treach-ery in their camp so soon? Let them look to it.
The Gazette and Journal will defeat him if in their power.

THE DIFFERENCE.—The opposition in Kentucky, at the late election, advocated a slave code for the territory, by Congress, and their candidates were almost a unit in favor of that measure, while the Democrats opposed any interference by Congress for or against slavery. The Republicans of Ohio sympathized with the free states of Kentucky because they advocated the same policy, dissolution of the Union. The free states of the south, and the Oberlinists of the north are on the same platform. The southern fire eater at the north would be a Republican-abolitionist, and a northern Republican abolitionist at the south would be a disunion fire-eater. That is just the difference between them.

TRAINING UP A RAILWAY TRACK.—ARRIST OF THE PERPETRATORS.—The engineer of a train on the Dayton and Michigan Road, when near Grand Rapids, discovered that two rails had been torn from the track. The train was stopped in time to prevent a catastrophe, and the rails were about being replaced, when the engineer was ordered to desist, by two brothers, John C. and Wm. A.
Tryon, who made threats of violence in case an attempt was made to relay the rails. On Sunday the Tryons were arrested by Deputy United States Marshal Moore, on a charge of obstructing the mails, and taken to Detroit. On being brought before a United States Commissioner, they waived an examination, and gave bonds in $1000 each to answer the charge before the United States Court.

The difficulty originates in a question of title to the right of way between the railway company and the Tryons, but the latter, in endeavoring to coerce the company into their terms, by jeopardizing the lives of unoffending passengers, have proved themselves little better than baseless ruffians. The law provides a remedy for any grievance they may have, without a resort to such dastardly acts as training up a railway track.

The Americans of the State of New York have refused to sell out to the Republicans, and fear with them at the ensuing election. The American Convention will be held as a different time and place from the Republicans.

The Republicans profess to be opposed to the slave trade, yet they are dealing more largely in human chattels at this time, than the most rampant slave holder at the South. Without their traffic in Cincinnati
